ORDER

The Havlish Plaintiffs' motion requesting permission to use previously-sealed witness testimony and some related exhibits, for limited purposes, is GRANTED.

The Havlish Plaintiffs and their counsel may use certain witness testimony and documentary evidence, listed below, that is presently under seal in this Court, that was considered by this Court, together with all the evidence submitted in Havlish, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1608(e). Accordingly, such evidence formed part of the body of evidence that led this Court, under 28 U.S.C. §1608(e), to issue the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law dated December 22, 2011, followed by the final Order and Judgment in Havlish on October 12, 2012, (entered onto the docket October 16, 2012, Havlish Docket No. 317) and, thereafter, to issue its Order Permitting Attachment and Execution Pursuant to The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act ("FSIA"), 28 U.S.C. §1610(c) (dated September 12, 2013; MDL Docket No. 2778).

The evidence listed below may be used by Havlish counsel and their international counsel for the limited purposes of making submissions in proceedings in Italy and Luxembourg, including Plaintiffs' efforts to domesticate, enforce, and collect on the judgments in exequatur petitions, related judgment enforcement proceedings, including efforts to maintain freezes on the assets of Havlish judgment debtors in those proceedings, in order to address issues that Havlish counsel represents have arisen and warrant immediate addressing in such litigation in Italy and Luxembourg.

Specifically, Havlish counsel has requested this Court's permission, and this Court hereby grants such permission, to use or authorize their international counsel to use, the testimony transcripts, and exhibits related thereto, of two Iranian defector witnesses identified in Havlish as "Witness X" and "Witness Z," as follows:
